

EFSE Advisory Group Meeting

The traditional year-end Advisory Group Meeting of the European Fund for Southeast Europe took place on 13 December in Vienna, Austria. Dr. Peter Mooslechner, Member of the Executive Board of the Oesterreichische Nationalbank, presented a keynote about the current challenges in the Eurozone and their implications for Southeast and Eastern Europe. The Advisory Group also discussed the topic of promoting local currency in the EFSE target region.

The EFSE Advisory Group is comprised of the Governors and senior executives of the central banks of the EFSE's target region. It provides the EFSE with close linkages to local markets, shares local experiences and formulates recommendations to the Board of Directors with regard to the Fund's strategy and operations. It is a unique platform for sharing insights at a strategic level.
